
Navigating the LinkingTree

Posted by admin - 2008/05/26 19:38

The LinkingTree is a unique website that involves a number of different communication tools. Student referrals are delivered to the project manager through the referral form. This indicates a request to be considered for entry into the LinkingTree Portal. If you find your self in need of assistance this is a great place to start.B)

=====